

Please vote against allowing further media conglomeration in the U.S. The airwaves have always been intended to serve the public interest; let's not get even further from this original intent by limiting diversity in media, which Americans need to make informed choices and to simply enjoy the full blessings of liberty.

Thank you for your consideration of these comments.

Sincerely,
Sarah Hillegass